A Great Time

Marked the Opening of Our

CARMINAL GREAT COTTON

THERE are a great many greats in that little heading above, but if there is any other word in the English language that expresses just what the opening day of our Great Cotton Carnival was, we have failed to find it out in our dictionary. We anticipated a crowd, and nothing but natural that we should. Our every day and Saturday, too, business attracts crowds and with the attention of such remarkable values as we popped open to the public on Saturday, it is no wonder that they came in with a grand rnsh and whirl. This great sale just at this time was not sought on our part, in fact we did not like the idea a little bit, but realizing the conditions we knew that something had to be done and we got busy and did it. That is all. But the buying throngs were mighty tickled with the values, as the hundreds of bundles leaving our store showed very plainly, and right straight on until this great sale closes Saturday night, December 23rd, we are going to keep on popping values that will be readily worth the reaping. As an evidence just note well the prices that we are quoting in this ad.

Everybody Sits Up and Takes Notice.

WE are not in this sale for the money, that is we do not expect to V profit on one single piece of merchandise; we simply want to move the greater part of this stock between now and Christmas and we are willing to make any sacrifice to accomplish our purpose.
